

Launch of the Bond at Brickell

Wednesday, May 1, 5-7 pm - PM Restaurant, 1453 S Miami Avenue, Miami Brickell

VIPs got a sneak peek of the first new condominium to be developed directly on Brickell Avenue since the last real estate cycle. The Bond at Brickell is a 44-story luxury tower with 323 residences in the heart of downtown Miami's Financial District, alongside Brickell Avenue and SE 1 Street, next to Mari Brickell Village and the Metro Mover with access to Brickell Avenue. Project is planned by Florida developer The Rilea Group, which has been delivering commercial and residential developments in South Florida since 1981.

The Architect of The Bond will be Nichols, Brosch, Wurst, Wolfe with the interior design by Loguer. The Condo will be inspired by Bond Street in London, a high-end, luxurious street know throughout the world for its wealth of elegant stores, exclusive brands, designer fashion, luxury goods and fine jewels. This building will have a Silver LEED Certification and all of the amenities one would expect including swimming pool and jacuzzi, fitness center and spa , state-of-the-art security and 24 hour concierge service.

