All the latest neighborhood and real estate news from Curbed Miami...

1) Jupiter Island: Up in Jupiter, songstress Celine Dion has listed her beachside Bahamian compound, complete with main house, five pavilions, a private water park, and an absolutely bonkers 415 feet of ocean frontage for a just as bonkers pricetag of $72 million.

2) South Beach: The woman who puts 'star' in 'starchitect', Zaha Hadid has listed her beachfront double unit at the W Hotel South Beach in hopes of upgrading to a larger unit at the building. But don't expect a signature 'Zaha Hadid space'. Although both units (which can be purchased together or separately) come fully furnished, the architect never customized either apartment.

3) Fort Lauderdale: More starchitecture! Architectural it-boy Bjarke Ingels' apartment complex cum riverfront canyon in Downtown Fort Lauderdale has finally been given the green light by the city commission. A landmark tree will be carefully moved to a new park, and three apartment towers will soon rise along the riverfront.

4) Brickell: British-y The Bond On Brickell has revealed a bunch of renderings showing a rather tame boxy building on the exterior livened by more exciting interiors and a vaguely 'James Bond'-esque building logo that looks like the oh-so-familiar Bond gun barrel sequence.
