Miami developer Rilea Group hosted an exclusive launch party at PM Fish and Steak House to unveil the launch of a new condominium project that will mark the first Brickell Avenue development to break ground since the recession. Hundreds of real estate brokers gathered to get a "sneak peak" of The Bond at 1080 Brickell, a new 323-unit luxury tower located at 1080 Brickell Avenue in the heart of Miami's Brickell Financial District, will combine luxury amenities, fashionable art and design, chic interiors, and an unparalleled location between Brickell Avenue and South Miami Avenue. Construction is set to begin in late 2013, with completion scheduled for mid-2015.
